

OAKGROVE
CATERHAM ON THE HILL

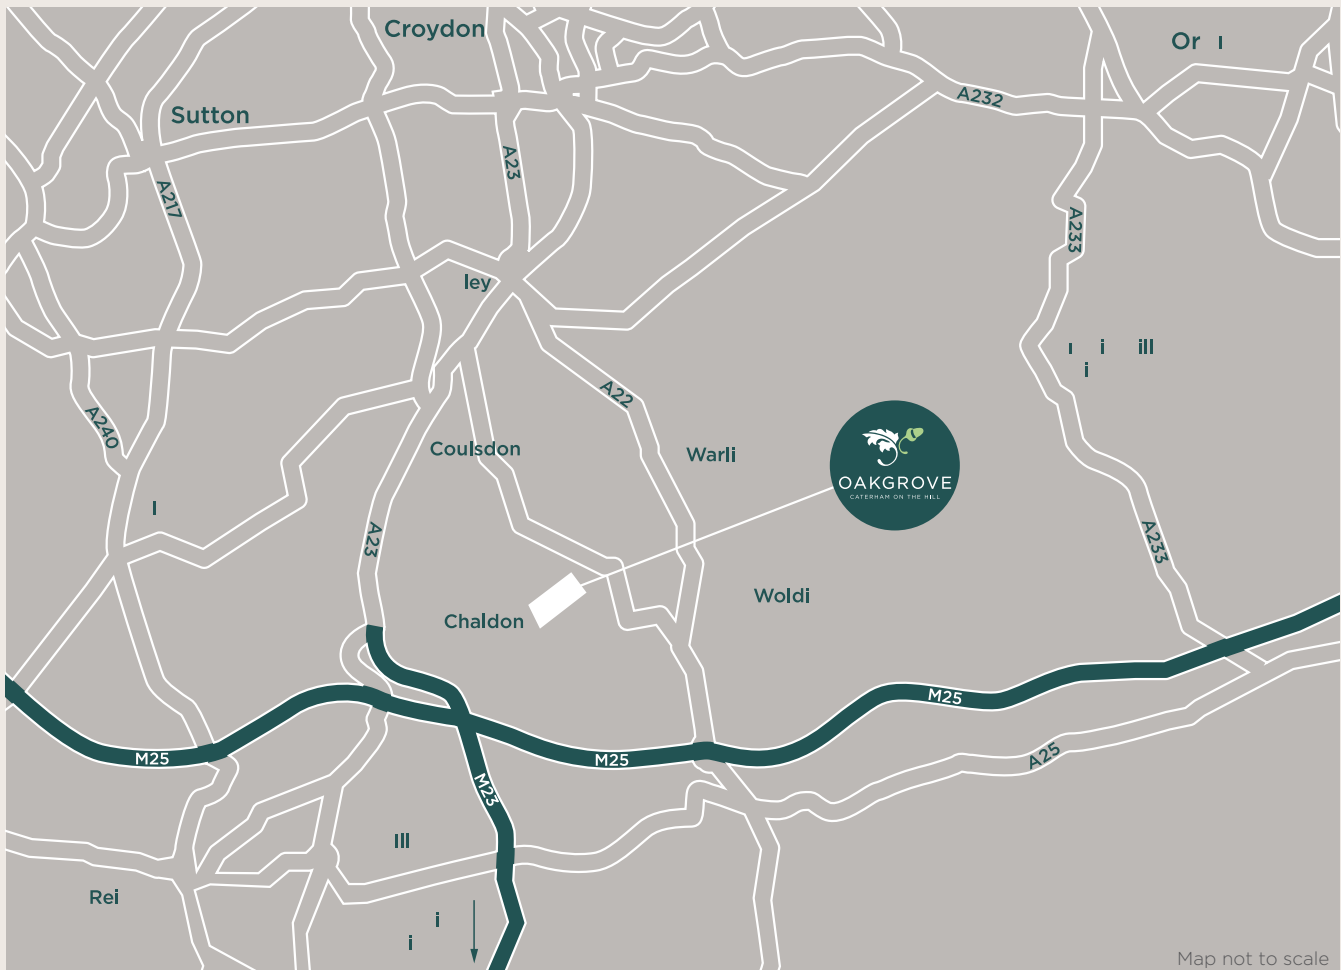

The Guide

Your handbook to life in Caterham on the Hill & surrounding areas

Discover your local area

Beyond the boundaries of Oakgrove, an equally enviable lifestyle awaits. Surrounded by beautiful Surrey countryside, one of the best golf courses within M25 on your doorstep and both Caterham on the Hill and Caterham town centre within walking distance. A wide range of schools for children of all ages, essential shops, services and excellent amenities are all available, along with easy access to Central London, Gatwick and the South Coast. The following pages set out local amenities and places you may find useful if you are new to the area.

CONTENTS

3-6: DINING OUT

Caterham and the surrounding towns and villages offer a wide range of independent restaurants, as well as the more popular chains. Whether it's Italian, French or Asian cuisine you are looking for you'll never be more than 20 minutes away at Oakgrove.

7-8: RETAIL THERAPY & ESSENTIALS

If you're looking for famous High Street stores or independent boutiques they are all within easy reach. Caterham's Church Walk Shopping Centre has all the essentials you need whilst a short drive away, Croydon boasts a larger retail centre for all your major shopping needs.

9-10: ENTERTAINMENT

Whether you are looking to keep the kids entertained by taking a trip to nearby Godstone Farm, prefer to play a round of golf or simply relax watching a film on the silver screen, Caterham and the surrounding area has all the entertainment options.

11-12: FITNESS & WELLBEING

The gyms, spas, parks and health services in and around Caterham all make fitness and relaxation easy for local residents. The local De Stafford Sports Centre offers a fully equipped gym and a 25m swimming pool, whilst the Nutfield Priory Spa in nearby Redhill offers facials, massages and manicures if a pampering session is more your thing.

13-14: EDUCATION

Caterham has a wide variety of state and independent schooling options to choose from and can cater for all ages from pre-school through to secondary schools.
